PEACE PUTS END TO BLOODY WAR IN THE BALKANS

Treaty Will Be Signed Today by the Delegates of Serbia, Greece, Montenegro and Rumania.

BULGARIA HELPLESS BEFORE RING OF FOES

Threat of Allies to Occupy Bulgar Capital Hastened Peace—None of the States Like the Treaty.

Sofia, August 6.—Peace was concluded tonight between the Balkan states and the preliminary treaty will be signed tomorrow by the delegates of Serbia, Greece, Montenegro, Rumania and Bulgaria. The agreement was arrived at only after another exhibition of the utter helplessness of Bulgaria to face her ring of enemies.

Threat against Bulgaria.

Wednesday the discussion in the peace conference threatened to become international, but Mr. Stojanovich, the Rumanian premier, and president of the conference, allayed matters by threatening that unless Bulgaria accepted the modified frontier proposed by the allies, Rumania would occupy Sofia next Saturday. This threat had the desired effect and an agreement was arrived at today after numerous private consultations between the delegates and a four hours sitting of the conference.

The frontier, as agreed to, starts at a point on the old frontier west of the Struma river, follows the watershed to the west of the town of Strumitsa, thence runs almost through the Struma valley to the Balkan mountains and thence easterly in almost a straight line to the Mesta river, thus leaving the town of Strumitsa, the port of Lugo and Kanihi in Bulgaria and a four hours walk to Greece. The new frontier is a deep disincorporation of the Balkan states, who will nurse hopes for its eventual revision by the powers.

It is believed that an agreement for the demobilization of the various armies will be signed tomorrow. The news that peace has been arranged caused great rejoicing.

BIG RECEPTION AT DRIVING CLUB

Car Ride Over City Precedes
One of Convention's Popular Events—Piedmont Driving Club Will Be Crowded.

At 4 p. m. today the visiting merchants will be tendered a car ride over the city which will wind up at 5 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving club, where there is to be a big reception. The reception at the club last year proved to be one of the most popular features of the entertainment. Every man wanted to feel entirely at home, and expressed himself as delighted with the whole affair. It is expected that there will not be a single delegate missing this evening.

touch with the Atlanta business men, the salesmen and themselves. While the morning meetings in the Auditorium are the most important feature of the entire convention and the one thing which will benefit each merchant most individually, in that he will learn things which are of vital importance to him and his business, nevertheless the closer touch into which the gathering is drawn through these receptions, barbecues, etc., tends to draw all more closely together and to bring about that feeling of mutual good will and the spirit of working in unity, which is so earnestly desired by all.

LOTS OF FUN.

Laughter Reigns When Salesmen and Merchants Meet.

Who said that buying goods was a dreary job? The aspersions were absolutely refuted yesterday when a trip was made around the various wholesale houses. Each one was filled with merchants buying goods and salesmen selling them. And above the sound of pencils scratching on order books and the rustling of handled samples rose loud and clear the carefree laugh and the super-truthful tongue of the fish-yarn spinner.

When salesmen and merchants get together there are some dandy stories going around and the man who thinks it necessary to scowl when he makes a deal could learn a good lesson watching the wisest merchants of the south buying their goods to their best advantage from the best markets for the southern merchant.
